(Entering Grades 9-12) Location: Douglass Community Center. This camp is especially designed for the high schooler in preparation for the high school tryouts. For the inexperienced player, basic skills are taught with emphasis on passing, serving, hitting and setting. Correct technique is important. Drills and court play are part of the curriculum.

The camp director is Joanne Todd and is assisted by experienced players and instructors. Most instructors are veterans of the NVVA teams. A maximum ratio of one coach to six players is maintained and camp size is limited to 45 to insure top quality. Email dcc@loudoun.gov or call 703-771-5913 for further information.
